Lead Generation Solutions

As a high-ROI, low-risk medium, lead generation is one of our most popular offerings. All of our lead generation programs feature:

- High return on investment – you pay only for qualified leads.
- “Push” model which ensures that your content reaches prospects at the time they need your services – versus waiting for prospects to find you.
- We work with you throughout the campaign to ensure you’re receiving the kinds of prospects you need.
- Flexible data collection and transmission capabilities – you choose the data elements you want to collect, and you also choose how and when you want the data delivered.
- Scalability – generate 100 or 1000 or more leads, at your pace.

Email and Online Lead Generation

Leverage your existing assets such as whitepapers, webcasts, podcasts, and webinars to generate prospects for your sales and marketing teams. We promote your offerings across our content network and send you only the qualified leads who respond. Our lead generation team works closely with you to optimize placement areas which can include websites, e-newsletters, dedicated email blasts, and more.

Call Center Lead Generation

Leverage our call centers to help qualify and generate prospects for your sales team rapidly. This program features all of the benefits listed above, plus:

- Ability for you to reach large numbers of our subscribers quickly, with a “human” touch that helps promote and reinforce your brand in ways not possible with print or electronic media.
- Ability to pre-screen potential buyers.
